DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 18-22 & 28-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rasouli et al. (# US 6548025).

Rasouli et al. disclose a method of releasing an odor from a printed image including (column: 3, line: 45-67): (a) providing a substrate having printed thereon on image comprising an electro-thermal odor-releasing ink (column: 4, line: 1-25; (b) providing an energy source; and (c) completing an electric circuit between the electro thermal odor releasing ink and the energy source (figure: 4-6), thereby releasing an odor. They also disclose that the energy source is portable electrical storage device or an electric heater (element: 30, figure: 5). They also disclose that a switch completes the electric circuit (element: 24, figure: 5). They also disclose that the electrically coupling the energy source to the electro-thermal odor releasing ink with a conductive element (column: 4, line: 15-25).

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 18-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
